

You are invited to a Local Wildlife Site Landowner Morning
A morning of talks and informal wildlife discussion for Local Wildlife Site owners
at Llanishen Village Hall, Monmouthshire (directions overleaf)

Sunday 3rd February 2019, 9.30am - 13.00pm

Programme

9.30-10.00am Arrival and tea/coffee

10.00am Welcome/Introduction

Andy Karran - Wildlife Sites Officer - GWT

A brief talk about the current Local Wildlife Site work and our plans for the future. Also a look at today's programme.

10.10am Kingfishers

Jeff Chard - Local Kingfisher & Otter Enthusiast

Jeff will tell us about his time spent studying local Kingfishers and particularly the experiences and encounters, some very close indeed, he has had with them whilst also studying Otters on The Usk.

10:50am AONB Lower Wye Catchments Project'

Chris Radford - Lower Wye Catchments Project Officer

Chris will be telling us about his project, that will alleviate flooding and invasive plant problems in the Lower Wye through natural habitat management processes by working with landowners.

11.20am Tea n' Cake Break

Refreshments and chance for discussion

An informal chance to pose your questions to our speakers and Wildlife Trust staff, and meet with other Local Wildlife Site owners, while enjoying a tea or coffee and some cake.

11:50am Welsh Beaver Project

Alicia Leow-Dyke - Welsh Beaver Project Officer - Wildlife Trust Wales

Alicia will be talking about the exciting, ongoing work exploring the possibilities of reintroducing the Beaver to the Welsh countryside.

12.20pm Robin Smith - Wildlife Cameraman

Robin lives locally in the Wye Valley but has filmed wildlife all around the world on numerous high profile natural history programmes. He will tell us a bit about what this involves, which should prove to be a fascinating insight from the other side of the lens.

13.00pm(ish) Home time!

Llanishen Village Hall, Church Road East, Llanishen, Monmouthshire, NP16 6QE

Llanishen Village Hall is situated on Church Road East in the village of Llanishen, in the county of Monmouthshire, just off the B4293 between Monmouth and Chepstow (see map below).

If you would like to attend please let us know as soon as possible so we can make sure we have ordered enough cake!

Contact: Andy Karran - e-mail akarran@gwentwildlife.org or 01600 740600

We look forward to seeing you for an interesting and inspiring morning.